

Sunday 6 August 2023

Walk:
Literary and Historical Tour
in English

13.00 departure from Kajetánka dormitory

The afternoon walk takes place between two town halls, going from the one in New Town to the Old Town. Along the way, we will talk about historical events such as the defenestrations of Prague, the Heydrich assassination and Prague under Rudolf II, as well as prominent authors of Czech and world literature including Karel Hynek Mácha, Milan Kundera, Bohumil Hrabal and Franz Kafka.

Fergus Menendez

Fergus is a Masters student of literature at the Philosophical Faculty, Charles University, formerly a student of Literature & History at Trinity College Dublin, Ireland. When he is not studying, then he has also worked as an English teacher and in a couple of independent bookshops. His interest in Czech history was first activated during an exchange to the Czech Republic when he was 17, and now he is very excited to be living, studying, and working in Prague!

