

66. LETNÍ ŠKOLA SLOVANSKÝCH STUDIÍ V PRAZE

Filozofická fakulta Univerzity Karlovy

Czech Traditional Folk Culture: Ethnographic Museum I.

Visit to the hidden gem of Prague – Ethnographic Museum of the National Museum, located in the picturesque Empire Style Kinsky Summer House in romantic Kinsky Garden. We will learn about everyday life of common Czech people in the past, with focus on peasant culture of the 18th and 19th century. Possibly, we will also have a drink in a local café.

*Dr. Petr Janeček is native of Prague and Associate Professor at the Faculty of Arts, Charles University in Prague. His academic interests include narrative folklore, European ethnology and intangible cultural heritage. He is the author of the Spring Man: A Belief Legend between Folklore and Popular Culture (Lanham: Rowman and Littlefield/Lexington Books, 2022), chapter on Czech intangible cultural heritage discourse in The Routledge Handbook of Intangible Cultural Heritage (New York/London: Routledge, 2017) and four popular collections of Czech contemporary legends and rumours titled Černá sanitka (2006, 2007, 2008, 2020) which* were adapted as theatre plays, radio podcasts and Czech TV series. He enjoys walking his Bosnian dog and playing board games.

Departure from the main building of the Faculty of Arts on August 8 2023 at 14.30.

LETNÍ ŠKOLA SLOVANSKÝCH STUDIÍ

Web: <https://lsss.ff.cuni.cz>, e-mail: lsss.praha@ff.cuni.cz, phone: +420 221 619 326