From New World to Kajetánka

Discover a peaceful and little-known neighborhood in the heart of the Czech Republic, near Prague Castle. We'll stroll through the picturesque, ancient streets of the so-called New World near the Deer Moat, then head along the former (and sometimes ruined) vineyard estates and manors to explore the neighborhood around the Kajetánka dormitory.

Marie Bergerová

A native of the region of Němcová, the Čapeks, and Jirásek; cellist, scout, castle guide, alto singer, cycling pilgrim; lover of wandering through the countryside as well as cultural landmarks; collector of stories from elderly witnesses; and a regular visitor of Czech expatriate communities around the world…
